

2012 Cal Ripken Ohio Valley Regional
12-Year-Old "50/70" -- Elizabethtown, KY
Played at the Elizabethtown Sports Park

Dear State Champion:

Congratulations on your recent success of winning your State Tournament and continuing on the Cal Ripken Tournament trail. Elizabethtown Area Baseball, City of Elizabethtown and the Elizabethtown Tourism Bureau is excited to serve as host for the 2012 Cal Ripken Ohio Valley Regional 12-Year-Old "50/70" Tournament. The tournament will be the first event in the new, $26 million Elizabethtown Sports Park.

Elizabethtown Area Baseball is prominent Cal Ripken program in the state of Kentucky, capturing several District, State and even a Cal Ripken Regional baseball tournament. Also, several graduates of Elizabethtown Area Baseball has propelled their high school teams to State Championships and Runner-ups, including most of players from the 2011 Kentucky State Champions from Central Hardin High School.

The attached information is very important to review and follow as your team travels to Elizabethtown to participate in the Regional Tournament. Please share this information with your families. In your best interest to make sure we are helping you in your accommodations in Elizabethtown, please contact myself upon winning your State Championship, preferably the day/night you win the title. We are prepared to move as quickly as you need us to help get all of your questions and issues resolved.

Congratulations and best of luck in Elizabethtown. We are hoping you find our community to be welcoming to you and your experience at the Tournament one that will last forever.

Sincerely,

Mike Pyles
Ohio Valley Regional Tournament Director
